

SPECIALIZED COURSE ON ENGLISH & ACADEMIC CULTURE

August 11th – August 29th

Come enjoy a hands-on introduction to the American University experience in an exciting pre-fall English Language Program offered by the University of Michigan – Dearborn! Strengthen your skills to better succeed in your studies in the United States. Course content will be customized to meet the needs of the enrolled students.

◆ S.P.E.A.C. Features:

- ◇ Academic listening
- ◇ Oral communication
- ◇ Essay writing
- ◇ Reading academic texts
- ◇ English proficiency test preparation
- ◇ Course meets 5 days per week for 3 weeks
- ◇ University lecturers
- ◇ Interesting cultural activities (some at an additional expense)
- ◇ Certificate of course completion
- ◇ Course content subject to change due to the needs of the students

◆ Includes (at no extra cost):

- ◇ Textbooks
- ◇ Lunches (5 per week)

Activities and Trips:

Trips in italics are optional and are available at an additional expense

- ◇ Ice Cream Social
- ◇ Campus Tour
- ◇ Fieldhouse
- ◇ The Detroit Institute of Arts and Detroit Historical Museum
- ◇ Belle Isle
- ◇ Ford Rouge Factory Tour
- ◇ Henry Ford Estate
- ◇ Detroit Tiger Baseball Game
- ◇ Detroit Zoo
- ◇ The Henry Ford Museum

*Trips may be subject to change

COSTS

- ◆ Course only (no lodging): $2000 per student
- ◆ Course plus shared hotel room (2 per room) & breakfast: $3200 per student

TO APPLY: Email Scott Riggs, the English Language Proficiency Program Coordinator snriggs@umich.edu